MUSIC THE HEALER

Music will some day become a powerful and acknowledged therapeutic.
—H. R. Haweis

CONTENTS

	Page
ACTIVITIES	1
Music is the common tie between races and nationalities, and recognizes no caste. —Jacques L. Gottlieb
AUDIOANALGESIA	2
There is no feeling, that does not find relief in music
EDUCATION	4
Music's the medicine of the mind. —John A. Logan
EFFECTS	4
Psychologists have found that music does things to you whether you like it or not. Doron K. Antrin
EMOTIONALLY DISTURBED CHILDREN	6
Music the fiercest grief can charm, And fate's severest rage disarm. Music can soften pain to ease, And make despair and madness please
GERIATRICS	8
Music is the moonlight in the gloomy night of life. JEAN PAUL RICHTER
HANDICAPPED	8
Where words fail, music speaks. —Hans Christian Andersen
MEDICINE	10
Music produces like effects on the mind as good medicine on the body. —Mirandola
MENTALLY ILL	11
Music's the cordial of a troubled breast, The softest remedy that grief can find; The gentle spell that charms our care to rest And calms the ruffled passions of the mind.

MENTALLY RETARDED 13

Music expresses feeling and thought, without language; it was below and before speech, and it is above and beyond all words.

MUSIC THERAPY 16

Music exalts each joy, allays each grief,
Expels diseases, softens every pain,
Subdues the rage of passion and the plague.

OFFENDERS 20

Music is the brandy of the damned.
GEORGE BERNARD SHAW, Man and Superman, III, 1903

PSYCHOTHERAPY 21

The object of music is to soften men down without injuring them, and to make them favorable to their surroundings, without lowering them. —Glück

THERAPISTS 24

Music is one of the most forcible instruments for training, for arousing, for governing the mind and spirit of man.
—William Ewart Gladstone

BIBLIOGRAPHIES 25

When all words end, music begins; when they suggest, it realizes; and hence the secret of its strange, ineffable power.

Music doth extenuate fears, furies, appeaseth cruelty, abateth heaviness, and to such as are wakeful it causeth quiet rest; it cures all irksomeness and heaviness of soul.

CASSIODORUS, The Divine Letters

Music is the medicine of the breaking heart.
—Leigh Hunt

Music
expelleth sadness and heaviness of spirit, preserveth people in concord and amity, allayeth fierceness and anger, and lastly, is the best physic for many melancholy diseases.
HENRY PEACHAM

Music is a friend of labor for it lightens the task by refreshing the nerves and spirit of the worker.
—William Green

Music is a shower-bath of the soul, washing away all that is impure.
—Schopenhauer

Music is a tonic for the saddened soul, a Roaring Meg [cannon] against melancholy, to rear and revive the languishing soul.
ROBERT BURTON

O sweet and healing balm of troubles.
—Horace

Preposterous ass, that never read so far
To know the cause why music was ordain'd!
Was it not to refresh the mind of man,
After his studies or his usual pain?
SHAKESPEARE: The Taming of the Shrew, III, 1594

Music, like balm, eases grief's smarting wound.
SAMUEL FORDAGE: The Siege of Babylon

Take a music bath once or twice a week for a few seasons. You will find it is to the soul what a water bath is to the body.
—Oliver Wendell Holmes

Naught so stockish, hard and full of rage,
But Music for the time doth change his nature.

Divine Musicke, besides that excellent power it hath to expell many other diseases, is a soveraigne against Despair and Melancholy, and will drive away the Divell himself.
—Robert Burton

There is a "reach" to music which the other arts have not; it seems to "get" you in an exhausted mood and quiets and refreshes where a book or a picture is not so sure.
—Charles M. Schwab

A lamentable tune is the sweetest music to a woeful mind.
PHILIP SIDNEY: Arcadia, II, 1590

A certain music, never known before,
Here lulled the pensive, melancholy mind.
JAMES THOMSON: The Castle of Indolence,

The sweetness and delightfulness of music has a natural power to lenify melancholy passions.
INCREASE MATHER

And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubleth thee. Let our Lord now command thy servants, which are before thee, to seek out a man who is a cunning player upon the harp: and it shall come to pass, when the evil spirit from God is upon thee, that he shall play with his hand, and thou shalt be well.
I Samuel 16:15-16

Who hears music, feels his solitude
Peopled at once.
ROBERT BROWNING

When gripping grief the heart doth wound,
And doleful dumps the mind oppress,
Then music, with her silver sound,
With speedy help doth lend redress.
—Shakespeare

And when an audience disperses, can you guess what griefs the singer may have comforted, what hard hearts he may have softened, what high thoughts he may have awakened?
—Bulwer-Lytton

And the night shall be filled with music,
And the cares that infest the day
Shall fold their tents like the Arabs
And as silently steal away.
—Longfellow

Of all the liberal arts music has the greatest influence over the passions, and is that which legislators ought to give the greatest encouragement.
—Napoleon I

For changing peoples' manners and altering their customs there is nothing better than music.
Shu Ching, 6th century B.C.

bring music into the streets, into courtyards, if you can into museums, into railway stations, into every place where crowds go and pass, you again and again rout scepticism, drunkenness and ill-health.
—Gordon Craig

Where there is music there can be no harm.
SPANISH PROVERB

The fine art which, more than any other, ministers to human welfare. Where there is beautiful music it is difficult for discontent to live.
—Herbert Spencer

Wherever there is good music there is harmony. Wherever there is harmony there are good citizens.
—J. Hampton Moore

Music hath caught a higher pace than any virtue that I know. It is the arch-reformer.
H. D. THOREAU

When Händel was told by his sovereign that the performance of the "Messiah" had afforded him pleasure, the composer replied: "Your majesty, I did not intend to amuse or to afford pleasure; I meant to make the world better."
—Karl Merz

Show me the home wherein music dwells, and I shall show you a happy, peaceful, and contented home.
—Longfellow

The only universal tongue.
SAMUEL ROGERS

Music is not all the time a gondola, or a race-horse, or a tight-rope. It is sometimes a chair as well.

It is the universal language, which appeals to the universal heart of mankind.
—George P. Upton

Music is the literature of the heart; it commences where speech ends.
—Alphonse de Lamartine

Music is the shorthand of emotion. Emotions which let themselves be described in words with such difficulty, are directly conveyed to man in music, and in that is its power and significance.

Who is there that, in logical words, can express the effect music has on us? A kind of inarticulate unfathomable speech, which leads us to the edge of the Infinite and lets us for moments gaze into that.
THOMAS CARLYLE

Music expresses that which cannot be said, and which cannot be suppressed.
—Victor Hugo

Men sing to keep their courage up, and when they sing for that purpose, an old tune will do as well as a new one—better, for old tunes carry old messages of strength and hope and solidarity.
Dorothy R. Ozanne

The power of music is so great, that in the legends of all nations, the invention of the art is ascribed to the gods.
—Karl Merz

Look out! Be on your guard, because alone of all the arts, music moves all around you.
